

Southeast Conference for Community Service and Service - Learning Directors

WELCOME to NORTH CAROLINA

Welcome to the Southeast Conference for Community Service and Service Learning Directors. As you know this conference has been specifically planned to meet the needs of those who run the day to day operations of Service and/or Service Learning programs on campuses across the Southeast.

We are so please to have so many of you here to share, learn, challenge, inspire and especially connect with others doing similar work. Because of a grant from the Corporation for National and Community Service through national Campus Compact, North Carolina Campus Compact and Florida Campus Compact are able to bring so many of you together.

Welcome and thank you for being here!
